federal court; and to secure the defendant's presence in federal court should Alameda County relinquish custody or primary jurisdiction,

The U.S. Marshal shall place a detainer based on this pending federal matter so that defendant shall be delivered to the U.S. Marshal if Alameda County relinquishes custody or primary jurisdiction;

If the defendant is committed and transferred to a penal institution pursuant to a conviction in the local jurisdiction, the detainer shall follow the defendant and, once notified, the U.S. Marshal shall notify this Court and the United States Attorney's Office; and

The U.S. Marshal shall keep the detainer in place throughout the pendency of the federal case unless the U.S. District Court assumes primary jurisdiction or the marshal is directed to withdraw the detainer.

HON. DONNA M. RYU United States Magistrate Judge
